

PROFILE

METTA LEGITA

Biography

Metta Legita is an accomplished pianist, composer, and arranger from Indonesia, renowned for her unique blend of traditional Indonesian music and contemporary jazz. She began her musical journey at the age of 16 in Bandung, quickly progressing to formal education in Jakarta. Despite starting later than many of her peers, Metta's unwavering passion and determination propelled her to perform at a high level within just a few years.

Education

Metta studied at Institut Musik Daya Indonesia, where she honed her skills under the guidance of Prof. Tjut Nyak Deviana Daudsjah. She earned her Bachelor's degree in Piano in 2010 and a Master's degree in Arranging and Orchestration in 2012. In addition to her music education, she holds a Bachelor's degree in Law from Universitas Katolik Parahyangan in Indonesia.

Career

Currently residing in Cambodia, Metta collaborates regularly with international musicians and showcases her talent through solo piano performances, as well as with small ensembles, big bands, and orchestras.

Early Work: Metta released an album with her early band, Contra Indigo, in 2010 and was part of several Indonesian music groups in subsequent years.

Debut Album: In 2018, she debuted as a solo artist with her album Scenic Spirit, which successfully merges a distinctly Indonesian sound with contemporary jazz influences.

Collaborative Projects: In 2020, she produced a mini album titled Cikaracak in collaboration with Australian flutist Jen Bird.

Performances

Metta's performance history is rich and diverse, featuring appearances at concerts, festivals, and resident Artist.

In 2019, she had the honor of performing at a joint Indonesian-Cambodian cultural celebration in front of King Norodom Sihamoni of Cambodia.

Education Advocacy

In addition to her performance career, Metta is passionate about music education. She has served as the vice-principal of Institut Musik Daya Indonesia, where she contributes to the development of future musicians.
